

Big Arvo BATTLE OF THE BANDS APPLICATION FORM

The 'Big Arvo' Battle of The Bands is a unique opportunity for young southern musicians to showcase their talents and get a head start in the industry. The winners will receive over $1000 worth of goods and services that will give their act a considerable boost, including vouchers for music equipment, rehearsal space, recording time and music industry mentoring.

The competition is open to unsigned acts based in the Southern Area, from any genre / style of music, as long as two thirds of the members are aged 21 or younger on the 24th July, 2010.

Each act will have up to 15 minutes of stage time.

Applicants will need to be prepared to attend a brief 'audition' / meeting with the organisers prior to the gig.

The competition will be staged as part of the 'Big Arvo' event held during the Willunga Almond Blossom Festival on Saturday 24th July, between 12.30pm and 5pm. Entrants are encouraged to bring as many supporters as possible with them, as crowd response is a big part of the judging criteria. The performances will be held in the Willunga Festival Hall.

Judging Criteria:

- Crowd response 35%
- Musical performance 35%
- Stage presence 20%
- Professionalism / presentation 10%
